“Power of investigation

37A. (1) The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him shall have all the powers necessary to carry out an investigation under this Act.

(2) In any case relating to the commission of an offence under this Act, the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him carrying out an investigation may exercise all or any of the powers in relation to police investigation in seizable cases given by the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593].

Authority card

37B. (1) There shall be issued to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him an authority card to be signed by the Minister.

(2) Whenever the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him exercises any of the powers of enforcement under this Act, he shall produce on demand to the person against whom the power is being exercised the authority card issued to him under subsection (1).

Power of arrest

37C. (1) The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him may arrest without warrant any person whom he reasonably believes has committed or is attempting to commit an offence under this Act.

(2) The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him making an arrest under subsection (1) shall, without unnecessary delay, bring the person arrested to the nearest police station, and thereafter the person shall be dealt with according to the law relating to criminal procedure for the time being in force.”.

New sections 38AA and 38AB

12. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 38A the following sections:

“Admissibility of statements in evidence

38AA. (1) Except as provided in this section, no statement made by any person to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in the course of an investigation made under this Act shall be used in evidence.

(2) When any witness is called for the prosecution or for the defence, other than the accused, the court shall, on the request of the accused or the prosecutor, refer to any statement made by that witness to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in the course of the investigation under this Act and may then, if the courts thinks fit in the interest of justice, direct the accused to be furnished with a copy of it and the statement may be used to impeach the credit of the witness in the manner provided by the Evidence Act 1950 [Act 56].

(3) Where the accused had made a statement during the course of an investigation, such statement may be admitted in evidence in support of his defence during the course of the trial.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to any statement made in the course of an identification parade or falling within section 27 or paragraphs 32(1)(a), (i) and (j) of the Evidence Act 1950.

(5) When any person is charged with any offence in relation to the making or the contents of any statement made by him to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in the course of an investigation made under this Act, that statement may be used as evidence in the prosecution's case.

Power to require attendance of persons acquainted with case

38AB. (1) The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him making an investigation under this Act may, by order in writing, require the attendance before himself of any person who appears to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case, and such person shall attend as so required.

(2) If any such person refuses or fails to attend as required by an order made under subsection (1), the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him may report such refusal or failure to a Sessions Court Judge who shall issue a warrant to secure the attendance of such person as may be required by the order.”.

Substitution of section 46B

13. The principal Act is amended by substituting for section 46B the following section:

“Forfeiture of seized vehicle, ship, book, etc.

46B. (1) Any vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized in exercise of any power conferred under this Act shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) An order for the forfeiture of the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document shall be made if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that an offence under this Act has been committed and that the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document was the subject matter of or was used in the commission of the offence, even though no person has been convicted of such offence.

(3) If there is no prosecution with regard to any vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized under this Act, such vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document shall be taken and deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of a period of one calendar month from the date of service of the notice.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) shall indicate that—

(a) there is no prosecution in respect of such vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document;

(b) such vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document, shall be taken and deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of one calendar month from the date of service of such notice unless before that date a claim is made in the manner set out in subsections (5), (6) and (7).

(5) Any person asserting that he is the owner of the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document referred to in subsection (3) and that it is not liable to forfeiture may personally or by his agent authorized in writing, give written notice to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in whose possession such vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document is held that he claims the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document.

(6) On receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (4), the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him shall refer the claim to a Sessions Court Judge.

(7) The Sessions Court Judge to whom a matter is referred under subsection (6) shall issue a summons requiring the person asserting that he is the owner of the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document and the person from whom it was seized to appear before him, and when the person appears or fails to appear, due service of the summons having been proved, the Sessions Court Judge shall proceed to the examination of the matter.

(8) If it is proved that an offence under this Act has been committed and that the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document referred to in this subsection (7) was the subject matter of or was used in the commission of such offence, the Sessions Court Judge shall order the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document to be forfeited, and shall, in the absence of such proof, order its release.

(9) Any vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document forfeited or deemed to be forfeited shall be disposed of—

(a) in accordance with the directions given by the Sessions Court Judge; or

(b) in such manner as the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him thinks fit.”.

New sections 46BA, 46BB and 46BC

14. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 46B the following sections:

“List of vehicle, ship, book, etc., seized

46BA. (1) Where any seizure is made under this Act, the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him making the seizure shall prepare a list of the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized and shall sign the list.

(2) The list prepared in accordance with subsection (1) shall be delivered immediately to the person in control or in charge of the vehicle, ship, aircraft or premises where the seizure is made under section 38 or 46A, as the case may be.

Release of seized book, record, computer, etc.

46BB. (1) If any book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document has been seized under this Act, the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him who effected the seizure may, after referring to the Public Prosecutor, release the book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document to the person from whose possession, custody or control it was seized.

(2) A record in writing shall be made by the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him effecting the release of the book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document under subsection (1) specifying in detail the circumstances of and the reason for the release, and he shall send a copy of the record to the Public Prosecutor within seven days of the release.

Cost of holding seized vehicle, ship, book, etc.

46BC. Where any vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized under this Act is held in the custody of the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him pending completion of any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act, the cost of holding it in custody shall, in the event of any person being convicted of such offence, be a debt due to the Government by such person and shall be recoverable accordingly.”.

Deletion of section 46c

15. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 46c.

Substitution of section 46D

16. The principal Act is amended by substituting for section 46D the following section:

“No costs or damages arising from seizure to be recoverable

46D. No person shall, in any proceedings before any court in respect of the seizure of any vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized in the exercise or the purported exercise of any power conferred under this Act, be entitled to the costs of such proceedings or to any damages or other relief unless such seizure was made without reasonable cause.”.

New sections 48AA to 48AE

17. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 48A the following sections:

“Access to computerized data

48AA. (1) The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him conducting a search under this Act shall be given access to computerized data whether stored in a computer or otherwise.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him shall be provided with the necessary password, encryption code, decryption code, software or hardware and any other means required to enable comprehension of computerized data.

Presumption

48AB. (1) When any substance is suspected of being scheduled waste and such substance is contained in a number of receptacles, it shall be sufficient to analyze samples of the substance of an amount as may be determined by the Director General and if such analysis establishes that such samples are all of the same nature and description, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, that the contents of all the receptacles were of the same nature and description as the samples so analyzed.

(2) The substance referred to in subsection (1) shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be scheduled waste and shall be disposed of in such manner as the Director General thinks fit.

(3) The procedure for taking and dealing with samples shall be as prescribed by regulations.

Additional powers

48AC. The Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him shall, for the purposes of the execution of this Act, have the power to do all or any of the following:

- (a) to require the production of any book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document kept by any person and to inspect, examine, download, make copies or take extracts from them;
- (b) to require the production of any identification document from any person in relation to any act or offence under this Act;
- (c) to make such enquiries as may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act have been complied with.

Obstruction to search

48AD. Any person who—

- (a) refuses the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him access to any vehicle, ship, aircraft or premises which the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him is entitled to have under this Act or in the execution of any duty imposed or power conferred by this Act;

- (b) assaults, obstructs, impedes or interferes with the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in the performance of his powers under this Act; or
- (c) refuses the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by the Director General any information relating to an offence or suspected offence under this Act or any other information which may reasonably be required of him and which he has in his knowledge or power to give,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

Joinder of offences

48AE. Notwithstanding section 164 of the Criminal Procedure Code, where a person is accused of more than one offence under this Act, the person may be charged with and tried at one trial for any number of such offences committed within any length of time.”.

Amendment of section 49

18. Section 49 of the principal Act is amended—

- (a) in subsection (1), by inserting after the word “authority” the words “, any corporation”; and
- (b) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) by inserting after the words “any local authority” the words “, to any corporation”; and
 - (ii) by inserting after the words “or local authority” the words “or corporation”.

New sections 49A and 49B

19. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 49 the following sections:

“Competent person

49A. (1) An owner or occupier of a premise shall employ a person who has been certified by the Director General as a competent person to conduct all or any of the following activities:

- (a) the operation of a control equipment;
- (b) the management of scheduled wastes;
- (c) the conduct of studies;
- (d) the preparation and submission of reports, plans, proposals, engineering drawings or other documents relating to environmental matters.

(2) The reports, plans, proposals, engineering drawings or other documents relating to environmental matters referred to in paragraph (1)(d) shall be prepared and submitted by the competent person to the Director General.

Reward to informers

49B. The Director General may order a reward as he thinks fit to be paid to an informer for services, information, statement or assistance in connection with the detection of any offence under this Act.”.

New section 50A

20. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 50 the following section:

“Protection of informers

50A. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), no witness in any civil or criminal proceedings pursuant to this Act shall be obliged or permitted to disclose the name or address of any informer or the substance and nature of the information received from him or state any matter which might lead to his discovery.

(2) If any book, record, document or paper which is in evidence or is liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceedings whatsoever contains any entry in which any informer is named or described or which might lead to his discovery, the court shall cause all such entries to be concealed from view or to be obliterated in so far as may be necessary to protect the informer from discovery.

(3) If in a trial for any offence under this Act the court, after full inquiry into the case, is of the opinion that the informer willfully made in his complaint a material statement which he knew or believed to be false or did not believe to be true, or if in any other proceedings the court is of the opinion that justice cannot be fully done between the parties in the proceeding without the discovery of the informer, the court may require the production of the original complaint, if in writing, and permit an inquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer.

(4) Any person who gives the information referred to in this section knowing that the information is false shall be guilty of an offence.”.

Amendment of section 51

21. Section 51 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) in subsection (1)—

(i) in the national language text, by substituting for paragraph (t) the following paragraph:

“(t) mengawal audit alam sekeliling dan pengemukaan suatu laporan audit dan pelantikan orang yang layak untuk membantu Ketua Pengarah dalam menjalankan audit alam sekeliling bagi mana-mana kenderaan, kapal atau premis, tanpa mengira sama ada kenderaan, kapal atau premis itu adalah yang ditetapkan di bawah seksyen 18 atau selainya, dan cara pengendaliannya, dan menetapkan bayaran yang boleh dikenakan;”;

- (ii) by inserting after paragraph (t) the following paragraph:

“(tt) regulating any matters relating to the environmental impact assessment;”;

- (iii) by substituting for paragraph (w) the following paragraph:

“(w) regulating any matters relating to a competent person;”; and

- (iv) by inserting after paragraph (w) the following paragraph:

“(x) regulating the competency of training providers providing training in the environmental field.”; and

- (b) by inserting after subsection (2) the following subsection:

“(3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may prescribe any act in contravention of the regulations to be an offence and may prescribe penalties of a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.”.

Savings and transitional provision

22. (1) A member of the Council who was appointed or reappointed before the coming into operation of this Act and who has not completed his term of office immediately before the coming into operation of this Act may continue to hold office for the remainder of his term of office.

(2) Any pending action or orders relating to any vehicle or ship before the date of coming into operation of this Act shall not be affected by this Act and shall continue as if this Act had not been enacted.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Environmental Quality Act 1974 (“Act 127”).

2. Clause 1 contains the short title and the power of the Minister to appoint the commencement date of the proposed Act.

3. Clause 2 seeks to provide for a general amendment to Act 127 by substituting for the words “qualified personnel” wherever they appear the words “qualified person”.

4. Clause 3 seeks to amend section 2 of Act 127 to introduce new definitions of “competent person”, “development plan”, “physical plan”, “pollution” and “qualified person”.

5. Clause 4 seeks to amend section 4 of Act 127 regarding membership of the Council. This amendment is consequent to the formation of new Ministries and changes in the name of certain Ministries. Further, with this amendment, the new members of the Council shall also include persons from registered non-governmental organizations who are active in promoting and enhancing environmental quality.

6. Clause 5 seeks to amend section 33A of Act 127 to enable the Director General to appoint a qualified person and to request the owner or occupier to appoint a qualified person from amongst the qualified persons listed under subsection 33A(3) of Act 127 for the purpose of carrying out an environmental audit and to submit a report thereon.

7. Clause 6 seeks to amend section 34A of Act 127 to provide for any person who intends to carry out any prescribed activity to appoint a qualified person to conduct an environmental impact assessment and to submit a report thereon to the Director General. The report shall abide by the guidelines as prescribed by the Director General and shall contain an assessment of the impact of such activity towards the environment as well as proposed measures to prevent, reduce or control the adverse impact on the environment.

The Director General shall not approve the report if the report is not in accordance with the development plan or physical plan approved by the relevant approving authority or if the report does not conform to the requirements as mentioned above.

8. Clause 7 seeks to introduce a new section 34^{AA} into Act 127 to provide the Director General with power to issue a prohibition order or stop work order to the person carrying out the prescribed activity without the approval under subsection 34^A(3) of Act 127, who violates the conditions attached to the approval of the report or if the Director General is of the opinion that the prescribed activity may cause environmental damage.

9. Clause 8 seeks to amend subsection 36^c(2) of Act 127 to include two members of the Council, to be appointed by the Minister, to sit in the Environmental Fund Committee.

10. Clause 9 seeks to amend paragraph 36^D(a) of Act 127 to require persons engaged in the exploration, extraction, refining, production, bulk movement, distribution or storage of gas to contribute to the Fund.

11. Clause 10 seeks to amend paragraph 36^E(a) of Act 127 to widen the administration of the Fund for the purpose of encompassing study, environmental audit or any activity as the Minister thinks fit.

12. Clause 11 seeks to insert new sections 37^A to 37^C for the purposes of providing the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him to have the power of investigation and power of arrest. An authority card shall also be issued to the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him and in exercising their enforcement powers under Act 127, they are obliged to produce the authority card on demand to the person against whom the power is being exercised.

13. Clause 12 seeks to insert new sections 38^{AA} and 38^{AB} to provide for the admissibility of statements in evidence and the provision to enable the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him to require attendance of any person who is acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case.

14. Clause 13 seeks to substitute the existing section 46^B of Act 127 with a new section 46^B. The proposed new section deals with the provisions relating to the forfeiture of anything seized under Act 127.

15. Clause 14 seeks to insert new sections 46^{BA} to 46^{BC}. The proposed section 46^{BA} imposes a duty on the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him to prepare a list of the vehicle, ship, book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized under Act 127.

The proposed section 46^{BB} deals with the release of anything seized under Act 127.

Further, the proposed section 46^{BC} seeks to provide that the cost of holding anything seized under Act 127 shall be a debt due to the Government and may be recoverable accordingly if a person is being convicted of an offence under the Act.

16. Clause 15 seeks to delete section 46C. This deletion is consequential to the insertion of the new section 46B that encompasses provisions relating to forfeiture.

17. Clause 16 seeks to substitute the existing section 46D of Act 127 with a new section 46D to provide that no person shall, in any proceedings in respect of the seizure of any book, record, computer, industrial plant, equipment, scheduled waste, waste, environmentally hazardous substance, pollutant, licence, permit, certificate, or other document seized under Act 127, be entitled to the costs of such proceedings or to any damages or other relief unless such seizure was made without reasonable cause. The existing section 46D only provides for the seizure of any vehicle or ship.

The proposed section 48AB seeks to provide for a presumption clause where it is sufficient to analyze samples of any substance, suspected of being scheduled wastes, which is contained in a number of receptacles. If the analysis establishes that the samples are of the same nature and description, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, that the contents of all the receptacles were of the same nature and description as the samples so analyzed. This section will facilitate in the investigation process in cases where the evidence involved is in large quantities.

The proposed section 48AC seeks to provide for the additional powers of the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him for the purposes of the execution of Act 127.

The proposed section 48AD seeks to make it an offence for any person who refuses the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him access to any vehicle, ship, aircraft or premises which the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him is entitled to have or in execution of any duty or power under Act 127. This section further seeks to penalize any person who assaults, obstructs, impedes or interferes with the Director General or any officer duly authorized in writing by him in the performance of his powers under the Act.

The proposed section 48AE seeks to provide for the joinder of offences. This provision allows a person who is accused of more than one offence under Act 127 to be charged with and tried at one trial for any number of such offences committed within any length of time.

19. Clause 18 seeks to provide that corporation may also be delegated with the powers, duties and functions under Act 127 by the Director General with respect to the issue of licences, the investigation of offences and the enforcement of Act 127.

20. Clause 19 seeks to insert new sections 49A and 49B. The proposed section 49A imposes a duty on the owner or occupier of a premise to employ a competent person to conduct the activities, among others, of preparing and submitting reports, plans, proposals, engineering drawings or other documents relating to environmental matters.

The proposed section 49B seeks to reward an informer who provides any services, information, statement or assistance in connection with the detection of any offence under Act 127.

21. Clause 20 seeks to protect an informer by concealing the identity of the informer to avoid discovery. However, the court has the power to disclose the informer if the court is of the opinion that justice cannot be dispensed without the discovery of the informer.

22. Clause 21 seeks to substitute paragraph 51(1)(t) with a new paragraph to provide for consistency between the provisions in the national language text and the English language text.

Further, this clause seeks to amend subsection 51(1) of Act 127 by introducing a new paragraph 51(1)(tt) to empower the Minister to make regulations on any matter relating to the environmental impact assessment.

The insertion of paragraphs 51(1)(w) and (x) seeks to empower the Minister to make regulations pertaining to a competent person and on the competency of training providers providing training in the environmental field, respectively.

23. Clause 22 deals with the savings and transitional provisions.

24. Other amendments not specifically referred to in this Statement are minor or consequential in nature.
